LATEST DISPATCHES.

News from all Parts of the World.

EMPEROR WILLIAM SURELY DEAD.

The Dispatches Yesterday were premature, but he Passed Away this Morning at 8:30.

BERLIN, Mar. 9.—The Emperor of Germany died at 8:30 o'clock this morning.

The Emperor's remains are disclosed to view, covered with a white cloth, on the bedstead upon which he died, in the Imperial chamber. The body is surrounded by candles. The expression on his face is extremely peaceful and placid.

The members of the Royal family left the palace at ten o'clock. Divine service will be held in the mortuary chamber to-night.

At the opening of the lower house of the Prussian Diet to-day, Herr von Puttkamer, vice president of the Prussian ministerial council, announced the Emperor's death. The Rt. Rev. Keiller, president of the house, closed the sitting with the words: "God protect the royal house and our Fatherland."

THE BOURSE CLOSED.

BERLIN, March 9.—The Bourse is closed on account of the death of the Emperor. When the Reichstag met to-day, Bismarck, with deep emotion, informed the members of the death of the Emperor. He also announced that the new King would assume the title of Frederick the Third.

MOURNING IN ENGLAND.

LONDON, March 9.—Flags are now at half mast generally throughout England on account of the death of Emperor William. Balls which were to be given at Dublin castle tonight and on St. Patrick's day, have been postponed. The Queen has sent telegrams of condolence to Berlin and to San Remo.

WILL NOT CHANGE THE POLITICAL

SITUATION.

LONDON, ENG., March 9.—The general impression is that the death of the German Emperor will have no effect upon the affairs of Europe.

The situation will remain unchanged while Bismarck lives.

THOMAS J. POTTER DEAD.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—T. J.

Potter, vice president of the Union Pacific railroad, died this morning.

Mr. Potter was a remarkable man; a complete illustration of what energy, faithfulness and judgment can accomplish in America in a short life time. He was about 50 years old and had risen from the ranks of the workingman to be a great power in the railroad circles of the nation.

Twenty-five years ago he was station agent at a small town in Iowa, from which position he gradually rose to that of division superintendent of the B. & M. division of the C. B. & Q., and thence to the general management of that great system, from which place he stepped into that of the vice presidency of the U. P. which he held when he died. But the great labors which he forced upon himself were too much for even his robust constitution and he had to succumb.

Crown Prince Going to Berlin.

SAN REMO, March 9.—The Crown

Prince, who starts for Berlin to-morrow morning, will be accompanied by all his doctors, as they fear he may have a relapse during the journey.

Sullivan and Mitchell in France.

AMEENS, March 9.—Both Sullivan and Mitchell arrived here this morning. Sullivan took private lodgings and is keeping himself from public gaze. Mitchell suffered fearfully from his trip across the channel, and is in no condition for the encounter to-day. The seconds are apparently making every preparation for the fight, but the police are watching the movements of all concerned and the possibility of a fight is somewhat dubious.

A Seducer Shot and Killed.

FRESNO, Cal., March 9.—Will

Williams, and a party of miners arrived in this city from Hildreth last night, and Williams gave himself up to the sheriff, having shot and instantly killed an Englishman named Harry Daniels in a saloon at Hildreth on Wednesday night.

Daniels, two years ago, under promise of marriage, betrayed a sister of Williams and fled the town.

An Old Voluntary Kills His Victim.
